

TO WANT (Affirmative)

I want _____

You want _____

He/she/Alex wants _____

We want _____

You want _____

They want _____

TO WANT (Negative)

I don't want _____

You don't want _____

He/she/Alex doesn't want _____

We don't want _____

You don't want _____

They don't want _____

TO NEED (Affirmative)

I need _____

You need _____

He/she/Alex needs _____

We need _____

You need _____

They need _____

TO NEED (Negative)

I don't need _____

You don't need _____

He/she/Alex doesn't need _____

We don't need _____

You don't need _____

They don't need _____

All of these sentences (but one) have errors. Write them properly below, and then write them in the negative form if they are positive, or in the positive form if they are negative.

- I needs two bottles of water.

_____ → _____

- You doesn't want an ice-cream.

_____ → _____

- Paco want a sandwich.

_____ → _____

- You needs more coffee.

_____ → _____

- My mother don't want a salad.

_____ → _____

- He need a bar of chocolate.

_____ → _____

- They doesn't want chicken.

_____ → _____

- Will and Lena need olive oil.

_____ → _____

- We doesn't want pears and oranges.

_____ → _____

- I doesn't need salt.

_____ → _____