

Past Sentences Affirmative

She played videogames yesterday.

I wrote a note on the notebook.

Lucy watched a movie last night.

We visited a museum last week.

They went late to school yesterday.

Anne and Danny ate a sandwich for dinner

REGULAR VERBS	IRREGULAR VERBS
play - played	be - was/were like - liked	buy - bought
watch - watched	choose - chose look - looked	get - got listen - listened	have - had
work - worked	make - made
cook - cooked	see - saw
live - lived	do - did
⋮	drink - drank
	eat - ate wear - wore write - wrote

Past Sentences

Affirmative

Ayer comimos pollo con patatas.

La semana pasada fui a la playa.

En los locos años 20 la gente tenía más dinero.

Los romanos vivían en Roma.

Past Sentences

Negative

She didn't play videogames yesterday.

I didn't write a note on the notebook.

Lucy didn't watch a movie last night.

We didn't visit a museum last week.

They didn't go late to school yesterday.

Anne and Danny didn't eat a sandwich for dinner.

Past Sentences

Negative

Ayer no comimos pollo con patatas.

La semana pasada no fui a la playa.

En los locos años 30 la gente no tenía dinero.

Los romanos no vivían en América.

Past Sentences

Interrogative

Did she play videogames yesterday?

Did I write a note on the notebook?

Did Lucy watch a movie last night?

Did we visit a museum last week?

Did they go late to school yesterday?

Did Anne and Danny eat a sandwich for dinner?

Yes, ... did.

No, ... didn't.

I

you

he she

it

we

they

Past Sentences

Interrogative

¿Comimos pollo con patatas ayer?

¿Fui a la playa la semana pasada?

¿Tenía la gente dinero en los locos años 20?

¿Vivían los romanos en América?