

THERE IS - THERE ARE

Empregamos there is para singular (e para cosas incontables).

Empregamos there are con sustantivos en plural.

Affirmative singular: There is a book.

Affirmative plural: There are five books.

Negative singular: There isn't a book.

Negative plural: There aren't five books.

Interrogative: Is there a book? Yes, there is. / No, there isn't.

Interrogative: Are there five books? Yes, there are. / No, there aren't.