LIFELONG LEARNING PROGRAMME 2007-2013 (Comenius)

Education and Training
European Commission > Programmes and Actions > New generation of programmes

The Lifelong Learning Programme 2007-2013

The Decision establishing a new Lifelong Learning Programme, was signed by the Presidents of the European Parliament and of the Council on 15 November and was published in the Official Journal of the European Union on 24 November. It comes into force on 14 December 2006.

The Commission has published on 20 December the 2007 general Call for Proposals for applications for grants under the programme.

The Lifelong Learning Programme comprises four sectoral programmes on school education (Comenius), higher education (Erasmus), vocational training (Leonardo da Vinci) and adult education (Grundtvig), and is completed by a transversal programme focusing on policy cooperation, languages, information and communication technology and dissemination and exploitation of results. Finally, a Jean Monnet programme focuses on European integration and support for certain key institutions and associations active in the field. The programme budget will be € 6,970 million for the total period 2007-2013.

The aim of the new programme is to contribute through lifelong learning to the development of the Community as an advanced knowledge society, with sustainable economic development, more and better jobs and greater social cohesion. It aims to foster interaction, cooperation and mobility between education and training systems within the Community, so that they become a world quality reference.

As regards the four sectoral programmes, quantified targets have been set in order to ensure a significant, identifiable and measurable impact for the programme. These targets are as follows:

- For Comenius:
To involve at least three million pupils in joint educational activities, over the period of the programme;
- For Erasmus:
To contribute to the achievement by 2012 of three million individual participants in student mobility under the present programme and its predecessors;
- For Leonardo da Vinci:
To increase placements in enterprises to 80,000 per year by the end of the programme;
- For Grundtvig
To support the mobility of 7,000 individuals involved in adult education per year, by 2013.

The screenshot shows the eTwinning Learning Labs website. At the top, there's a header with the eTwinning logo and the text "eTwinning Learning Labs" and "GUEST". Below the header, there's a navigation bar with "Home". The main content area has a welcome message: "Welcome to the eTwinning Learning Lab!". It includes a photo of Anne Gilleran and text explaining Learning Events: "This space is where we will offer different Learning Events on different topics. The idea of a Learning Event is that it is a short intense course that offers you an introduction to a topic, stimulates your ideas, helps develop your skills and does not require a long-term commitment in terms of your time. They are also designed to be an enjoyable learning experience. To join a learning event, you must be registered for eTwinning. If you are not yet registered you can do so here. We hope that you will join us here and that we can share our work, experiences and learn together in the spirit of eTwinning. If you need any help or further information please send an email to: LearningLab_coordinator@eun.org". Below this, there's a section titled "presented by Sebastian Dorok" with a link to "Course Full". At the bottom right, there's a small photo of Bart Verswijvel and the eTwinning logo.

Sello de Calidad (Quality Label)

Es un nuevo distintivo dentro de la acción eTwinning creado a finales del curso 2005/06. Se concede a aquellos centros que lo soliciten, siempre que el proyecto de trabajo haya alcanzado un determinado nivel de calidad tanto a nivel nacional como europeo. De esta forma, existe el Sello de Calidad Nacional y el Sello de Calidad Europeo.

1. ¿Qué es el Sello de Calidad Nacional?

El Sello Nacional de Calidad lo concede el Servicio Nacional de Apoyo a aquellos centros escolares cuyo trabajo en un hermanamiento eTwinning se considera de excelente calidad
