

On my last holidays I (go) _____ to a holiday resort in Punta Cana, Dominican Republic. I (go) _____ with my partner and we (stay) _____ there for a whole fortnight.

We (not know) _____ where to go so we went to a travel agency to have information about different destinations. Finally, we (decide) _____ to go to Punta Cana because the weather is wonderful and it was very cheap. The travel agency (book) _____ everything for us, the flight, the hotel and even the food! It was a package holiday.

We (drive) _____ to Madrid to take the plane and we (fly) _____ to Punta Cana. It (take) _____ 8 hours to get! When we (arrive) _____ in Punta Cana, we (go) _____ to the hotel because we (be) _____ really tired after the journey. It was late in the evening and we just (check) _____ in the hotel and (go) _____ to sleep. The next morning we (have) _____ breakfast in the hotel and (go) _____ for a walk along the promenade.

The rest of the time we (enjoy) _____ the beach and the resort and we (take) _____ a lot of photos. We also (go) _____ sightseeing one cloudy afternoon, but there was nothing interesting to see. We (visit) _____ a small church near a cliff, which (have) _____ the most amazing views I have seen in my life.

I would recommend anyone who is looking for a relaxing holiday to go to Punta Cana. You can have a really good time and forget about the stress of the city.

Place the regular verbs under the correct column according to their pronunciation:

/d/	/t/	/id/

Why are they pronounced in a different way? We have three possibilities.
Match them to the correct sound:

- | | |
|---|---------|
| a) When the infinitive
of a verb ends in a VOICED sound,
we pronounce... | 1. /id/ |
| b) When the infinitive
of a verb ends in a VOICELESS sound, we pronounce... | 2. /d/ |
| c) When the infinitive
of a verb ends in a /d/ or /t/ sound,
we pronounce... | 3. /t/ |
