

What do you think of the article?

Is it something you would use in your class?

Do you think cheating is still a big problem in education?

How has cheating changed through the years?

What are ways to stop students from cheating?

Have you had problems with students cheating in your class?

What are some problems that teachers can encounter in their classes?

What are some creative things or ideas you use in your class?

What is the hardest part of being a teacher?

Why did you choose to become a teacher?

What is the best part of being a teacher?

Have you changed something in the way you teach from when you started to now?

You are now working in sales:

Find an object in the class which you will try to sell to your classmates. Prepare a sales pitch in which you outline why THEY NEED THIS OBJECT in their lives.