

immigration:

what does the government do?

- give helps
- they are allowed to live in a house
- education for children and adults
- Kick them out

What can be done?

- Communication (negotiations)
- economic help from host country to country of origin (economic aid)

pro immigration:

- people improve the economy
- Europe needs younger working age people
- Shared culture
- worse jobs in the country are taken by immigrants

against immigration:

- immigrants can be involved in illegal matters
- families are broken
- Prepared students leave the country for better deals
- economically hard for the government
- adaptation is hard
- steal our jobs (aids)

are all immigrants looked at the same?

- no because of stereotypes
- money

what kind of immigration does a country want?

- people who have studied
- people with money
- young people

What type of immigration does a country not want?

- illegal
- people who won't or can't work
- different people
- poor people
- refugees