The screenshot shows a Microsoft Teams meeting interface. The main content is a presentation slide titled "What is Assessment?". The slide features a semi-circular diagram with segments representing different assessment methods: concept mapping, questioning, portfolio assessment, teacher observation, conferencing, teacher-designed tasks and tests, self- and peer-assessment, and standardised testing. Two labels are overlaid on the diagram: "Assessment as Learning" (Child leads the assessment) and "Assessment for Learning" (Teacher leads the assessment). A box at the bottom right of the diagram is labeled "Assessment of Learning" (Teacher leads the assessment). The slide is attributed to (NCCA, 2007) and includes the MIC logo.
