

1.- Intro

How many ways of expressing the future do you know in English?

2.- Listen to a man speaking about his plans for the weekend and say if you can recognize the different tenses to refer to the future.

3.- Listen again and answer the following questions.

- a. Where are they travelling?
- b. How are they travelling?
- c. What places are they going to visit?
- d. Where are they staying?
- e. What does he hope?

4. Listen again. Now, fill in the blanks:

Next weekend I'm travelling to Berlin with my wife and my daughter. We're travelling by plane, of course, but we'll _____ a car in Berlin to _____. A friend of mine suggested this because public transport in Berlin is really expensive. So, we are going to visit many towns and villages _____. My friend said we should go _____ in Berlin because it is an amazing city. Then, I had a look on the internet and found a lot of places to see. We're going to start with the Brandenburg Gate because they say it is _____ and after that, the Reichstag building, which houses the German Parliament. It is going to be really interesting.

We are staying at a 3-star hotel, which seems _____ but comfortable, so I hope we will not have any problem during the _____.

A friend of mine suggested this because public transport in Berlin is really expensive. So, we are going to visit many towns and villages nearby. My friend said we should go sightseeing in Berlin because it is an amazing city. Then, I had a look on the internet and found a lot of places to see. We're going to start with the Brandenburg Gate because they say it is impressive and after that, the Reichstag building, which houses the German Parliament. It is going to be really interesting.

We are staying at a 3-star hotel, which seems basic but comfortable, so I hope we will not have any problem during the trip.
