Movie 2

Emotional Intelligence

Perform activities on different emotions helps our students to know themselves and their classmates. What we feel and what we feel the others is shown only with gestures and body expressions, we do not need words.

A vintage movie projector is shown in a dark setting. The projector is silver and black, with two large film reels visible on the left. A beam of light is projected from the front of the machine. The background is dark, and the overall lighting is warm and focused on the projector.

Movie 3

Coeducational Dodgeball:

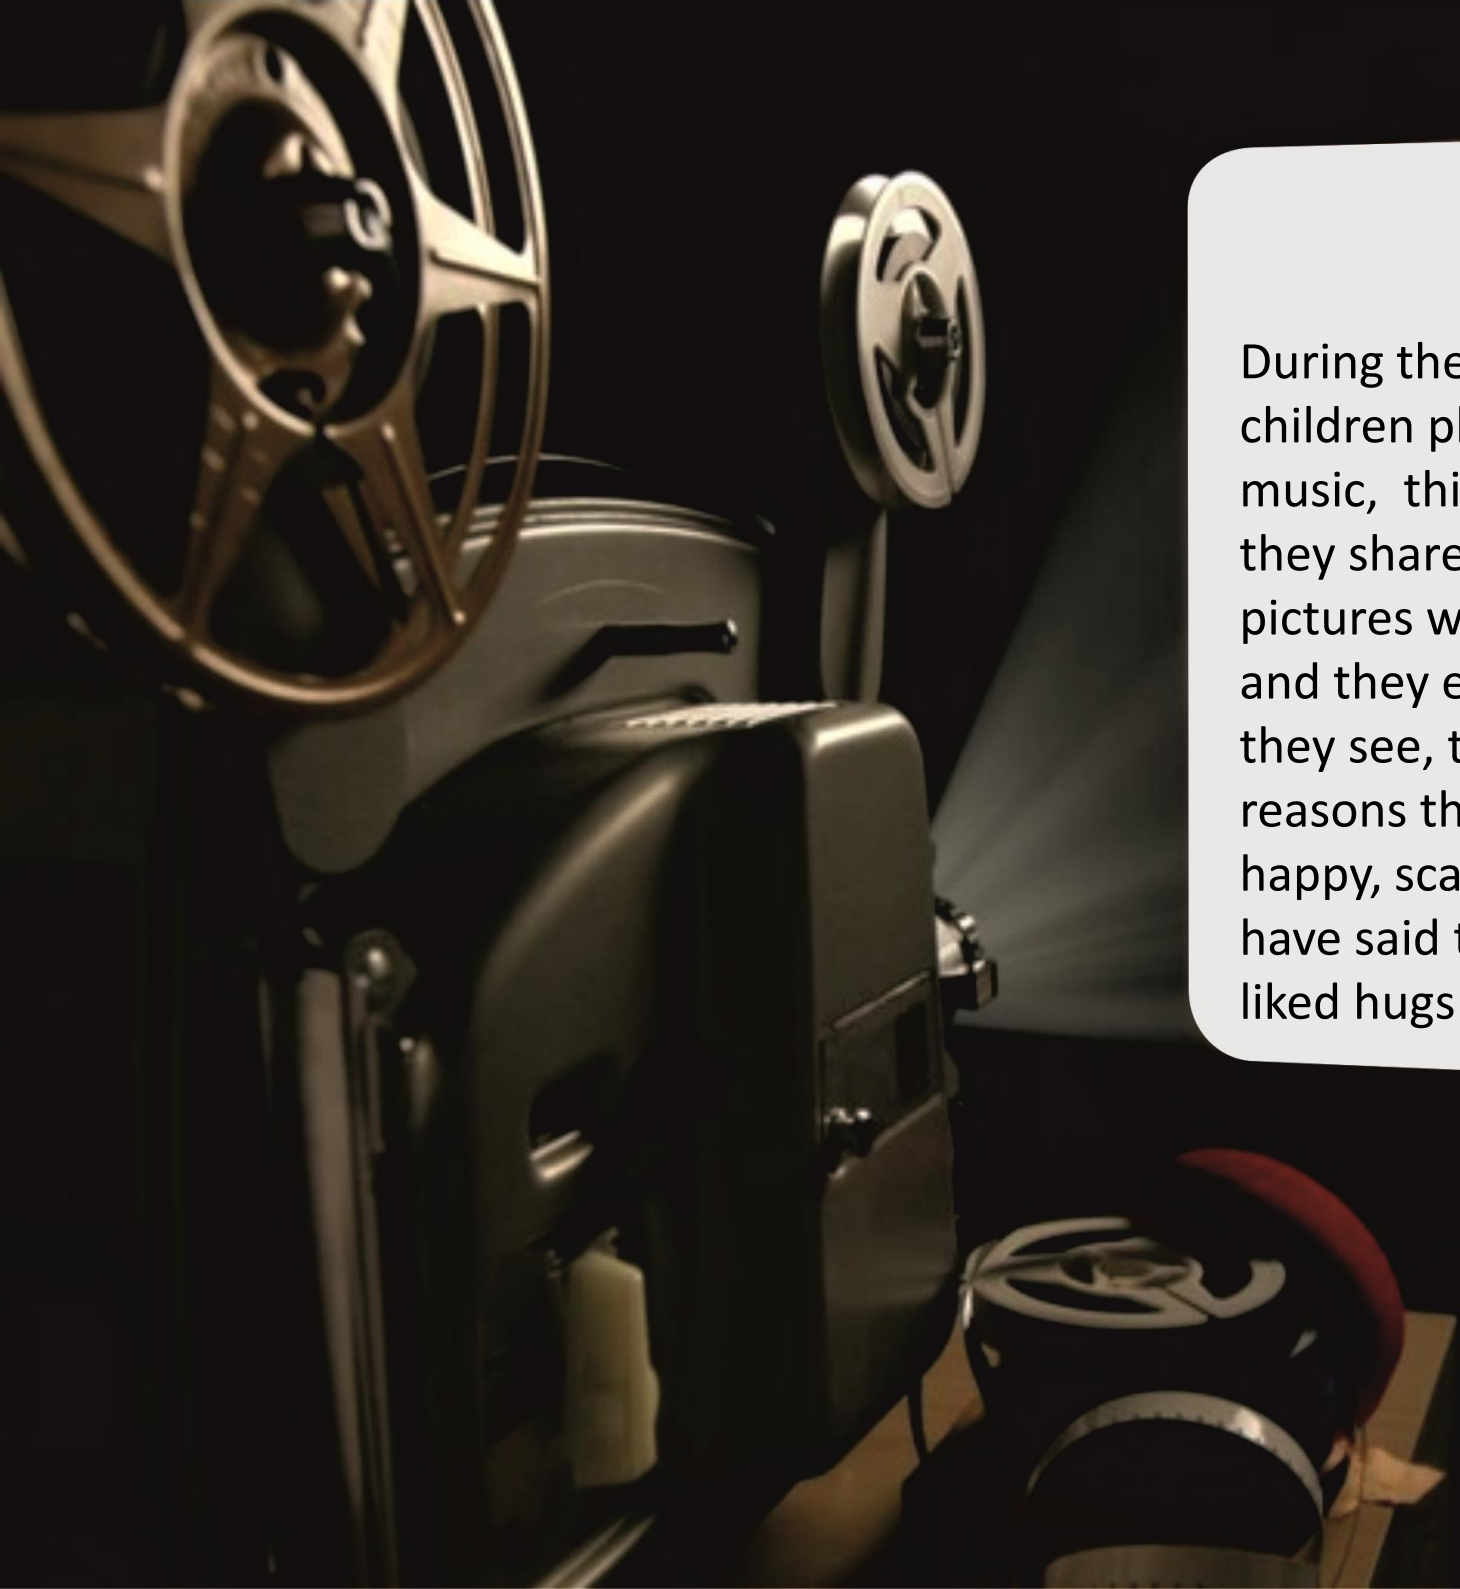

With this game our students work on equality between boys and girls.

Movie 4

We are all equal!

In this video the students of Third Course gives us their vision of equality.

Movie 5

During the mindfulness sessions, the children play, hug each other, listen to music, think about their feelings and then they share them with the rest. They look at pictures where people express emotions and they explain with their own words what they see, trying to identify what are the reasons that made these people be sad, happy, scared, ...After these sessions, they have said things like: "I love friendship", "I liked hugs and massages among us".

Movie 6

Awards Coexistence at School:

We have been giving a fairplay award (harmony, coexistence) to those who helped to create a peaceful atmosphere and to make our community life better. Different groups or classes have been honoured for five years.

This year, we have honoured with this award an association called ASPANEPS and their project "Get on my shoes". It is based on an experiment where they make the students feel like those with disabilities. They try to show them how it feels like to be on a wheelchair, or not being able to see, through blindfold experiences, etc.

A vintage movie projector is shown in a dark setting, with its large reels of film visible. The projector is a classic model, likely from the mid-20th century, with a prominent lens and various adjustment knobs. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the metallic surfaces of the projector against a dark background.

Movie 7

Godfathers:

- 1.To look after their godchildren in the rows that there are no conflicts.
- 2.-The students of 4th course to help children reach the stage of Early Childhood Education that are in a separate building. These children, in the first half of September, have the period of adaptation, since it does not know well the rooms of the new building, their Godfather are responsible to collect them in your classroom and give them to their parents, take them to the bus or to the dining room.
- 3.-Every Tuesday after hours of break, we do "Godfather Reader" for 25 minutes. Godfathers read the book chosen by Godchildren wherever they want. This moment is supervised by teachers at all times.

Movie 9

"Working Women's Day"

Mothers from different cultures explain their experiences as women. This activity was an analysis and reflection on the role of women in different cultures.

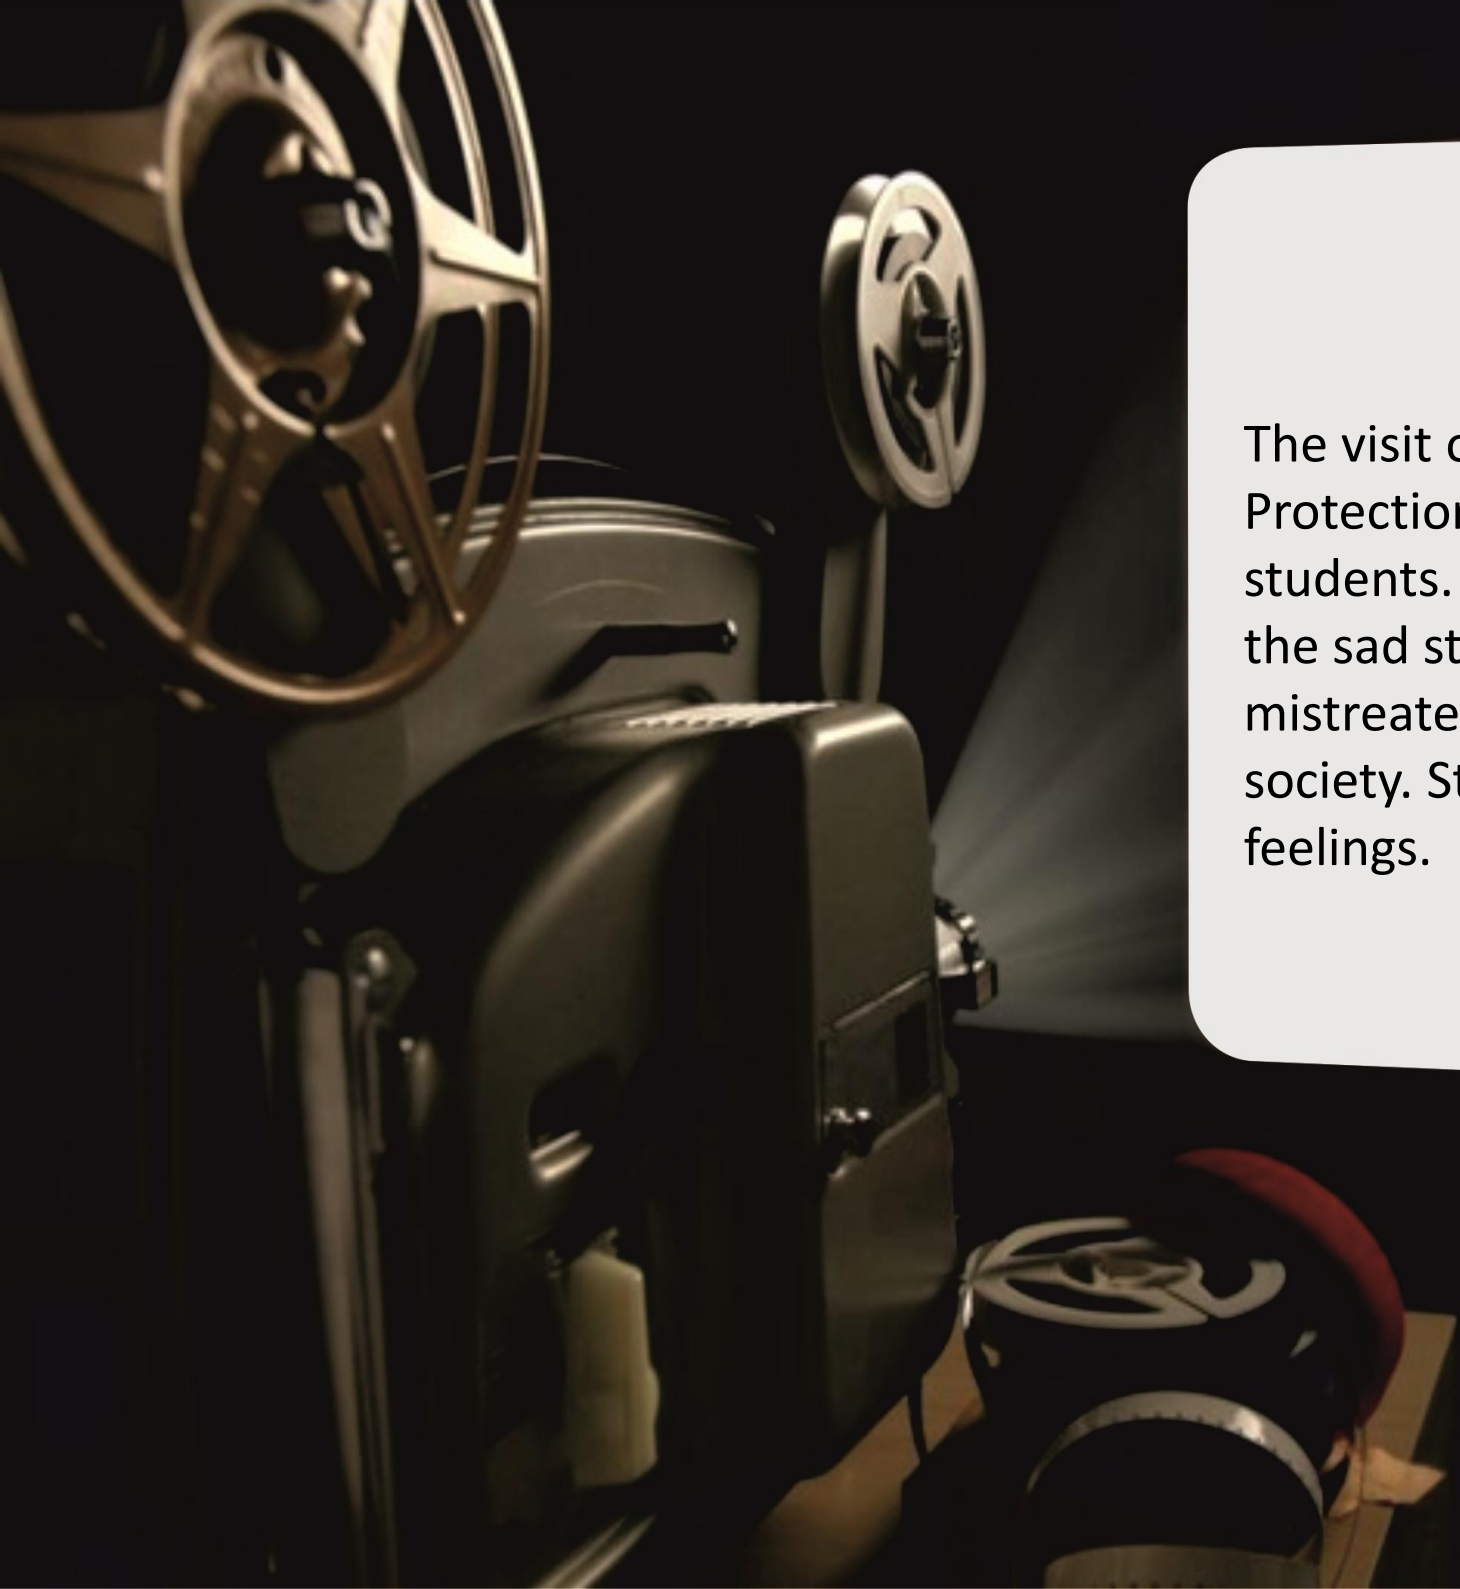

Movie 10

The grandparents tell us stories:

Grandparents are very important in the lives of our students.

In the "Book Month" grandparents come to school and tell them stories.

Movie 11

The visit of Association of the Protection of Animals did enjoy our students. At the same time, they knew the sad stories of greyhounds, animals mistreated by a minority sector of society. Students showed their feelings.

Movie 12
