

WHAT MAKES A SUCCESSFUL LANGUAGE LEARNER? LINK

Topic: Learning foreign languages using music, media and other easy activities at home.

Female polyglot explains how to learn languages (CBS)

CBS 5 Bay Sunday interview with Susanna Zaraysky, writer of the book, Language is Music. Now watch the introduction and fill in the gaps with one or more words.

GAPFILL

(0"-30")PART 1-From Transcript: Host:

Welcome back to Bay Sunday. Our next 1 _____ speaks seven languages. She has travelled to 2 _____ and wants you to know that you 3 _____ can learn another language just by listening to music, the radio and watching tv. Please welcome the 4 _____ of Language is Music, Susana Zaraysky.

(30"- 1'23")PART 2-Based on Transcript: Guest:

When we are little, we listen to our 5 _____ for about a year before speaking. Language is like music so we start 6 _____ as if it was a song. I thought about how people learn languages and I saw the way people 7 _____ in language classes. I realized the way we learn as adolescents and adults is 8 _____. We should listen first before we speak, as if 9 _____ were music. Take French as an example, you have French music in the 10 _____; you have radio and tv in French. You 11 _____ the sounds of the language, then you learn the words and the grammar.

(1'23" -5')PART 3-Now watch the next part and mark the statements below T/F (true or false):

- 1) The presenter can remember chemistry better than melodies.
- 2) Textbooks claim you should go abroad to learn the language.
- 3) The guest learned different languages early on in her life.
- 4) Susana thinks that travelling abroad is essential.
- 5) She suggests you watch the news in your language and then in the foreign language.
- 6) Post-its are a good idea for learning house vocabulary.
- 7) Languages will sink in if you go to language class regularly.
- 8) Doing your taxes in French is a good idea.
- 9) Finding a speaking partner is difficult on the internet.
- 10) When you have a better level you can go to meet-up groups to practice.

Watch this other video \(LINK\) for more information about Susana's ideas. Jot them down and get ready to discuss them in class as well as to answer your teacher's questions.

KEY:

GAPFILL

From Transcript: Host:

Welcome back to Bay Sunday. Our next 1__guest__ Speaks seven languages . She has travelled to 2 __fifty countries__ and wants you to know that you 3 __too__ can learn another language just by listening to music, the radio and watching tv. Please welcome the 4 __author__ of Language is Music, Susana Zaraysky.

Based on Transcript: Guest:

When we are little, we listen to our 5__mother tongue__ for about a year before speaking. Language is like music so we start 6 __copying words__ as if it was a song. I thought about how people learn languages and I saw the way people 7 __get frustrated__ in language classes. I realized the way we learn as adolescents and adults is 8__backwards__. We should listen first before we speak, as if 9 __foreign languages__ were music. Take French as an example, you have French music in the 10__background__; you have radio and tv in French. You 11__get used to__ the sounds of the language , then you learn the words and the grammar.

Now watch the next part and mark T/F (true or false):

- 1) The presenter can remember chemistry better than melodies. F
- 2) Textbooks claim you should go abroad to learn the language. F
- 3) The guest learned different languages early on in her life. T
- 4) Susana thinks that travelling abroad is essential. F
- 5) She suggests you watch the news in your language and then in the foreign language. T
- 6) Post-its are a good idea for learning house vocabulary. T
- 7) Languages will sink in if you go to language class regularly. F
- 8) Doing your taxes in French is a good idea. T
- 9) Finding a speaking partner is difficult on the internet. F
- 10) When you have a better level you can go to meet-up groups to practice. T