

6 Minute English. BBC Learning English

“Grown up and living at home”

You're going to listen to a radio programme about parents and children. Complete the following statements with one or two words. Write your answers in the space provided, as in the example (0).

	GROWN UP AND LIVING AT HOME (15 May 2014)	Answer
0. (Example)	Both Finn and Rob were 18 when they _____ .	left home
1.	In some countries, economic conditions, culture, or family tradition means that some young people stay at home until they “get hitched” – or _____.
2.	It may be too expensive to rent or buy a house and the _____ continue to live at one of their parents' homes.
3.	In the UK, it has been more common to leave home at a fairly young age and get your own place to live – maybe sharing it with other people – like a _____.
4.	Moving to another city to take up a job comes at a price: there are bills to pay, there's food to buy, plus the cost of _____.
5.	The recent _____ downturn is the biggest factor. It's harder for them to get on the “property ladder” – to buy a house.
6.	Luke is still at home and finds it difficult being an adult in an _____ – or a place where you live – where you're a child.
7.	He feels like a child because he's being looked after and doesn't have much _____.
8.	He thinks it also limits him professionally – so it can affect his _____.
9.	Alberto Baragan is 29 and lives near Madrid in Spain, a country where _____ amongst the young is high.
10.	He says you are 'living for _____' – that is quite a big incentive.
11.	Alberto also mentioned there were no taxes or bills to pay, which is great if you're not _____ any money.
12.	But if you have no choice about living at home, hopefully you at least have a good relationship with your parents. This means accepting their virtues – their good points – and their _____.

6 Minute English. BBC Learning English

“Grown up and living at home”

You're going to listen to a radio programme about parents and children. Complete the following statements with one or two words. Write your answers in the space provided, as in the example (0).

	GROWN UP AND LIVING AT HOME (15 May 2014)	Answer
0. (Example)	Both Finn and Rob were 18 when they _____ .	left home
1.	In some countries, economic conditions, culture, or family tradition means that some young people stay at home until they “get hitched” – or _____.
2.	It may be too expensive to rent or buy a house and the _____ continue to live at one of their parents' homes.
3.	In the UK, it has been more common to leave home at a fairly young age and get your own place to live – maybe sharing it with other people – like a _____.
4.	Moving to another city to take up a job comes at a price: there are bills to pay, there's food to buy, plus the cost of _____.
5.	The recent _____ downturn is the biggest factor. It's harder for them to get on the “property ladder” – to buy a house.
6.	Luke is still at home and finds it difficult being an adult in an _____ – or a place where you live – where you're a child.
7.	He feels like a child because he's being looked after and doesn't have much _____.
8.	He thinks it also limits him professionally – so it can affect his _____.
9.	Alberto Baragan is 29 and lives near Madrid in Spain, a country where _____ amongst the young is high.
10.	He says you are 'living for _____' – that is quite a big incentive.
11.	Alberto also mentioned there were no taxes or bills to pay, which is great if you're not _____ any money.
12.	But if you have no choice about living at home, hopefully you at least have a good relationship with your parents. This means accepting their virtues – their good points – and their _____.	