

Listen to the recording and take notes.

1. What is the situation described?
2. How is that situation even possible? What is the most logical explanation?

Listen again and take notes about the answer and the conclusions that can be taken about how people answer this question.