You read the following comment on a discussion board.

Over the last 20 years, the Internet has developed to such a degree that soon most subjects we want to study will be available to us online. Already we can attend MOOCS and watch videos of lectures taking place at some of the most prestigious universities in the world. We can do a follow-up reading and listen to the lecture as many times as we want.

The idea of lifelong learning is that we never stop developing and learning new content and skills. Therefore, it not only enhances social inclusion, active citizenship, and personal development, but also self-sustainability, as well as competitiveness and employability. Without teachers we can still develop a lot, thanks to the Internet.

Write a opinion essay for the forum in which you express your opinion clearly and support your ideas.

You must write about the following points in the most appropriate order.

- Summarise the main idea of the comment above.

- Give arguments for and against online learning and write a conclusion.

Write between 180 and 210 words.

Include both points.

Make sure you divide your essay into parragraphs.
