[Verse 1]

Look at this photograph
And what the hell is on Joey's head?
How did our eyes get so red?
Every time I do, it makes me laugh

I think the present owner fixed it up
And this is where I grew up
The second floor is hard for sneaking out
I never knew we ever went without

Criminal record says I broke in twice
Most of the time had better things to do
And this is where I went to school
I must've done it half a dozen times

If I was them, I wouldn't let me in Life's better now than it was back then
Should I go back and try to graduate?
I wonder if it's too late

[Pre-Chorus]

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, God, I, I

[Chorus]

Goodbye, goodbye
It's hard to say it, time to say it
I had the photo album spread out on my Every memory of looking out the back door bedroom floor
Goodbye, goodbye
looking for
I found the photo of the friend that I was Every memory of walking out the front door
It's hard to say it, time to say it
(Goodbye)

[Verse 2]

They say somebody went and burned it down
Blew every dollar that we ever made
The cops hated us hangin' out
Remember the old arcade?

We said someday we'd find out how it feels
And sing along with every song we know
To sing to more than just the steering wheel
We used to listen to the radio

I was so nervous that I nearly missed
I haven't seen her since God knows when Kim's the first girl I kissed
She's had a couple of kids since then

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]

[Bridge]

You can't replace it
I miss their faces
I miss it now
You can't erase
I miss that town

I know the one thing that would never change
Too hard to leave it
I can't believe it
If I could relive those days
So hard to stay

[Chorus]

[Closing]

Every time I do, it makes me laugh
Look at this photograph
Every time I do, it makes me
