

People's Interest 2022

www.reallygreatsite.com

Travelling

The COVID 19 pandemic saw a worldwide reduction in travelling and tourism. 2019 saw a 75% reduction in global travel for leisure and 2020 was actually even worse seeing a 80% reduction. However, the vaccine and emergence of Omni has given hope to the devastated sector. Studies show that summer 2022 bookings are looking strong and consumer confidence in travelling is rising again.

Source: Travel Agents of Spain United

C2 SEMI WORLD