

Modal verbs.

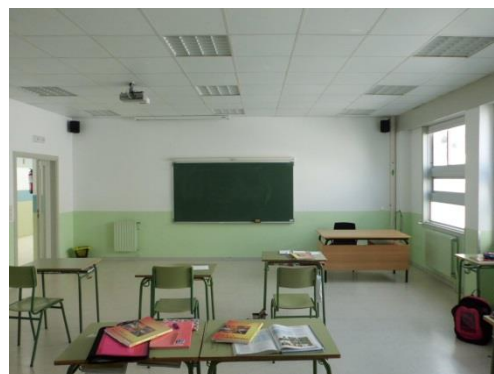

I. Must / may / may not / can / can't / should / shouldn't

Complete the sentences using the modal verbs. Check the correct use.

- a. You renew your subscription to that website. It's no longer valid.
- b. The lid is broken. Unfortunately, it be repaired.
- c. She be in. The lights in her house are on.
- d. Passengers go past this line.
- e. You try bus number 5 to get to the restaurant.
- f. You use dictionaries during the exam.
- g. Why are the children watching TV? They be doing their homework.
- h. My son be home by now. Where can he be?
- i. I think your thumb is broken. You go to the emergency room.
- j. You come too early. We won't leave until 11 o'clock.

II. Look at the picture.

1. What day of the week is it?
 - i. It may be Sunday, because there aren't any children.
 - ii. It must be a school day, because there are books on the table.
2. Where is this picture taken?
 - i. It must be a classroom, because there is a blackboard.
 - ii. It might be a bad cinema. It can't be a bank.
3. What time of the year is it?
 - i. It might be summer, it could be autumn. It can't be winter because the windows are open.

III. Give advice. Give advice for the following situations using modals.

Where are they?
Where are they going?
Are they students?

What are they doing?
Where are they?
Are they friends?

Where are they?
What is the weather like?
What time of year is it?