

Modals and Modal perfects Revision.

1. Look at the pictures and answer the questions. Use modal verbs and justify your answers.

- a. Where are they?
- b. What time is it?
- c. Why are wearing hats?

- a. How old are these people?
- b. Why are they at the beach?
- c. Why are they dressed that way?

- a. Where are these people?
- b. What was the weather like the day before?
- c. Have they had breakfast, yet?

- a. Why is the man so worried?
- b. What has just happened to the women?
- c. What has the man just asked the women?

2. Look at these pictures. decide if the sentences are true or false and justify your answers using modal verbs.

- a. It is Sunday.
- b. The women with the red scarf has just told a joke.
- c. The woman on the left has just seen something surprising.
- d. They have just missed the bus.

- a. The woman on the left has said something funny.
- b. The man is cheating.
- c. The woman on the right is young.
- d. They have been playing cards all afternoon.

- a. It is a summer's day.
- b. The man has just thrown snowballs at the women.
- c. The women in black doesn't throw snowballs.

- a. The women's pet is ill.
- b. The women is at the vet.
- c. The women likes cats.
- d. It is a summer's day.