

1. Should learning multiple languages be a priority in today's interconnected society?
2. Do you think people should live abroad in order to learn the language and the culture better?
3. Has the rise of digital communication weakened our interpersonal communication skills?
4. Should governments invest more in saving minority languages that are on the verge of extinction?
5. Is social media enriching or deteriorating our language and communication skills?
6. Should schools prioritize bilingual education from an early age to enhance cognitive abilities?
7. Can body language, facial expressions, and gestures convey more meaning than spoken language?
8. How important is language in maintaining and expressing cultural identity?
9. Can the inability to communicate fluently across languages hinder diplomacy and global cooperation?
10. Should the curriculum shift toward teaching effective communication skills rather than strictly adhering to traditional language rules?