DIALOGUE

Jack: Sophie, hi!

Sophie: Hi, Jack! How is Singapore? Are you having a good time?

Jack: Yes, I am! Singapore is great!

Sophie: What time is it there?

Jack: It is nine o'clock at night.

Sophie: Oh, wow! So what is Singapore like?

Jack: It is an amazing city.

Sophie: Really ? What is special about it?

Jack: Well, it is very clean. Probably because you will get a huge fine if you throw rubbish on the ground.

Sophie: How much?

Jack: Three hundred dollars – that is about 225 pounds.

Sophie: Wow, that is a big fine! So what else do you like about the city?

Jack: There are a lot of cool things to do there.

Sophie: Like what?

Jack: Well, for example, yesterday we went skydiving indoors ...

Sophie: Indoor?

Jack: Yes, it was amazing! And then in the afternoon, we went surfing.

Sophie: That does sound cool. So how are you getting around?

Jack: Mostly by train. The trains are really good. They are cheap and they go everywhere. They are electric, so they are good for the environment, too.

Sophie: It sounds great ... Oh sorry, Jack, my mum is calling. I have got to go. Enjoy the rest of the trip! Bye!

Jack: Bye, Sophie!
