

ORAL PRESENTATION AND CREATIVE PROJECT

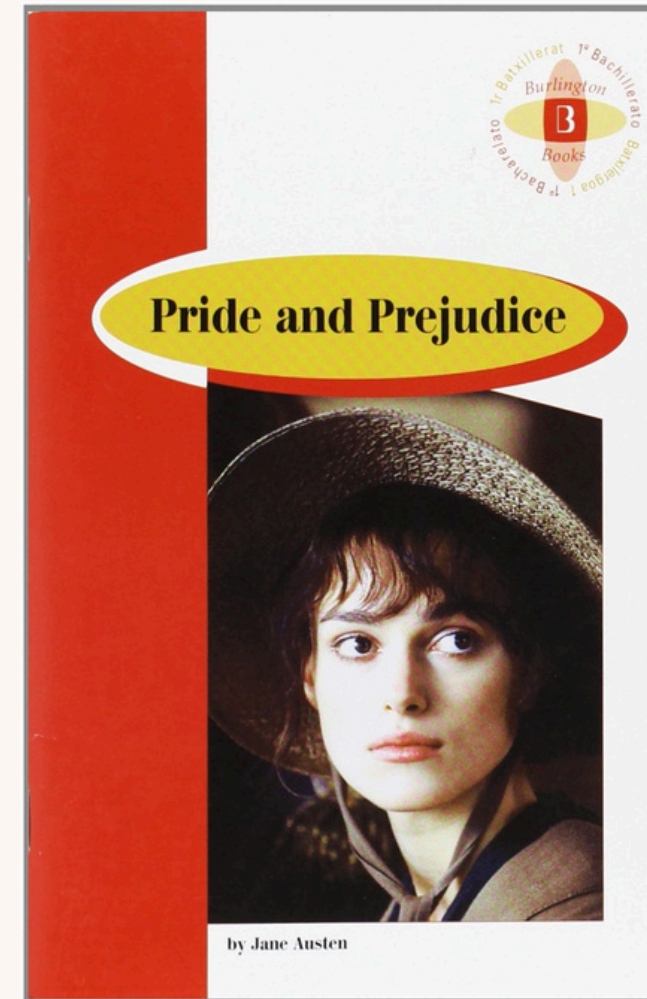

READING BOOKS

Option 1: "Pride and Prejudice".

Burlington 1º bachillerato.

Option 2: "Emma", Oxford
(colección Dominoes2)

Both books were written by Jane Austen.

IDEAL TIMING

01

READING TIME:

From mid-October to mid-November, so you have 2 weeks for your project making.

02

PROJECT MAKING:

You will do it at your own pace, at home.

In class, you will have 2 sessions to revise the presentations and ask questions.

03

ORAL PRESENTATION AND EXPOSITION

1st week of December.

TIMING

01

READING TIME:
3 WEEKS. The book has 12 chapters. This means that you have to read 4 chapters each week. I will ask you questions in the Virtual Platform.

02

PROJECT MAKING:
3 weeks: 1 week: research, organization, sharing information.
week 2: creation of the project, writing the script.
week 3: learning the script by heart. Project finishing touches.

03

SHARING IS CARING

YOUR PROJECTS WILL BE SHARED IN THE
LIBRARY FROM THE FIRST WEEK OF DECEMBER UNTIL THE END OF THE TERM,

FINAL NOTES:

- I will give each group a worksheet with suggested resources, including webpages and YouTube videos, to help you with your project.
- We will have one (or two, if time allows) session(s) to rehearse in class or ask any questions you may have before the presentation.
- I will upload the Rubric that I will use to correct the oral presentation to the Virtual Platform.
