

VOCABULARY HOMEWORK.

Name:

Due date: Monday 1st of December.

1. Choose the correct expression (do or make)

- a. make notes / do notes
- b. make something wrong / do something wrong.
- c. make some research / do some research
- d. make an excuse / do an excuse
- e. make the rules / do the rules
- f. make someone a favour / do someone a favour

2. Complete with do or make.

- a. I asked you not to _____ a mess!
- b. _____ your chores first, please.
- c. I want to _____ a complaint.
- d. Just _____ your best and be confident.
- e. Please don't _____ so much noise.
- f. Don't worry. We all _____ mistakes.

3. Tick the correct sentences. Correct the wrong sentences.

- a. Everyone does mistakes.
- b. Why do you always make excuses?
- c. You should do notes about the talks.
- d. Who makes the rules in your house?
- e. Stop making so much noise!
- f. My brother didn't make anything wrong.
- g. The children always make a mess when they play

4. Complete the dialogues with the correct form of do or make, and a word from below.

chores excuses noise mess wrong favour
--

- a. Who is _____ all that _____? It's my brother and his friends!
- b. Can you _____ me a _____, please? Of course!
What would you like me to do?
- c. Who _____ the _____ here? I did, sorry. I made a cake, but it fell on the floor.
- d. I was late because I was wearing the wrong shoes and I couldn't walk very fast.
Don't _____ ! Next time, wear trainers or leave home earlier!
- e. Have you paid for that T-shirt? yes, I have. Here's the receipt. I haven't _____ anything _____.
- f. Can I go to the cinema this afternoon, please? Yes, but I expect you to _____ your _____ first.