

SELF-ASSESSMENT AND TERM ASSESSMENT

Since before Christmas, you've learnt a lot of new, different things (hopefully). Complete the chart, answer the questions and add words to the dictionary.

I can...	Yes	Not yet
Remember at least 5 terms related to entertainment.
Remember at least 3 terms related to consumerism
Use relative pronouns
Distinguish between defining and non-defining relative clauses
Distinguish between modal verbs and modal perfects.
Write a for and against essay, paying attention to structure and connectors
Write a review, paying attention to structure and content.
Remember the plot of Pride and Prejudice / Emma
Mention at least 2 facts about Bollywood
Understand texts related to movies.

Answer the questions in a piece of paper. Use full sentences and answer all of them.

- What similarities or differences did you find between the English language/ culture and your own language/ culture? Mention at least 1. Use full sentences.
- What aspects of Indian cinema caught your attention the most, and what do you think they show about Indian culture?
- In what ways are Indian films similar to or different from the movies you usually watch? Explain your ideas using respectful language and avoiding stereotypes.
- What did you think of the unit? Did you like it? Was it useful?
- Help the teacher help you: what would you change about the term to make it more useful to you? Did you miss anything? What would you add to make it more entertaining/easy to understand?
- What was your favourite part of the term? And your least favourite?

DICTIONARY.

Add at least 6 terms that you've learnt in units 3 and 4. Follow the example:

- Word (category). Definition.
Sentence with the word to see what it means in context.