Should students wear school uniforms?

Nowadays, many schools have uniforms and students must wear them every day. Some people think this is a good idea, while others do not agree. Personally, I think that students should wear school uniforms.

First, uniforms help students feel equal. When everyone wears the same clothes, there is less pressure to have expensive or fashionable clothes. This can make students feel more comfortable at school.

Second, uniforms are practical and save time. Students do not need to think about what to wear every morning. Also, schools look more organised when all students wear the same clothes.

To sum up, I think school uniforms are a good idea because they help students feel equal and make daily life easier.
