Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children

by Ransom Riggs

I have just read Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children. It's the story of a boy called Jacob who travels with his father to a fictional island.

They visit a house which Jacob's grandfather talked about before he died. However, Jacob realizes that the house looks very unusual.

He meets a girl, Emma, who makes him her prisoner. In actual fact, she is kind and she becomes Jacob's friend. He meets Miss Peregrine and the other residents of the house. They seem strange. What's more, they've all got unusual skills. There's a girl who can levitate, a boy who is invisible and a girl who is very strong.

Jacob discovers that the house was an orphanage. Furthermore, the children are living in another time dimension.

The story gets quite scary at times. Nevertheless, it's very exciting and I would totally recommend it!
