

PRACTICE:

4. Complete the text in your notebook using the correct form of Be going to and the verbs.

Although Jim and Sarah Fisher won £ 1 million on the lottery, they 1... (not stop) working. “ We like our jobs,” they say. They 2....(donate) some money to their favourite charity and they 3... (buy) houses for their son and daughter. Sarah loves sport, and she 4...(travel) to Rio de Janeiro for the Olympic Games. Jim 5... (not go) to the Olympics) , but he 6... (spend) some money on a new car.

5. Write questions about the text in exercise 4 using be going to . Then write short answers.

1. Jim and Sarah / stop / working / ?
2. they / give / any money / to charity / ?
3. they / spend / any money / on their children / ?
4. Sarah / buy / a new car / ?
5. Jim / go / to the Olympics / ?

6. Choose the correct option.

1. Look at those clouds! It's going to / will rain.
2. “Come on, Let's go . It's 8 pm What time does the film start ?
At 8:10 pm. We're going to / will miss the beginning for sure.”
3. “Do you think you're going to / 'll pass the exam ?
I don't know but I'm going to / 'll study a lot.

SOLUTIONS:

4)

1. aren't going to stop
2. are going to donate
3. are going to buy
4. 's going to travel
5. isn't going to go
- 6's going to spend

5)

1. Are Jim and Sarah going to stop workin? No, they aren't.
2. Are they going to give any money to charity ? Yes, they are.
3. Are they going to sdpend any money on their children ? Yes, they are.
4. Is Sarah going to buy a car ? No, she isn't.
5. Is Jim going to go to the Olympics ? No, he isn't.

6)

1. 's going to
2. 're going to
3. 'll, 'm going to