MELBOURNE

The people of Melbourne, Australia love food, sport and shopping! It's a great place to eat, drink and go shopping. There are cafés, restaurants and hotels.

(a) Melbourne is a very multicultural city. People of many different nationalities live there. There are some great Italian cafés in Brunswick Street in the centre of the city. Mario's and The Retro café are very popular. If you prefer Asian food, try the Mid-City Arcade. There are some really interesting Chinese and Japanese restaurants, and great Japanese clothes shops. There's even a Chinese chemist.

(b) If you like shopping, there are some great shopping centres, too. Try the Como Shopping Centre for shoes and clothes, and if you have got time it has got its own cinema too. But if you want to buy CDs, then there are some good music shops in Centrepoint.

(c) If you are interested in sport then Melbourne is the place for you. People in Melbourne like to be healthy so there are a lot of swimming pools and sports centres. You can practise your favourite sports. Melbourne is famous for the Melbourne Gold Cup horse race and the Australian Open Tennis Championship. Many people come from all over the world to watch them every year.
