THEORY ABOUT -ED AND -ING ADJECTIVES:

Some participles can be used as adjectives in either the present or past form.

1. Present Participle (-ing) is used to describe something or someone. Examples:

"I watched an interesting TV about American history last night."

"This film is boring. Let's stop watching it."

2. Past Participle (-ed) is used to describe how people feel about something or someone.

"I'm interested in American history."

"I'm bored of my job. I want to find another one."

1) What is the difference of ...?

1. This film is boring.

And

2. I am bored of watching this film.

2) Choose the correct option: -ed/-ing adjectives
