

PROFESSIONAL LIFE

1. Classify the following adjectives into “ positive” or negative.

hardworking	qualified	lazy	well-organised	skilled persistent	rude	reliable	responsible	cooperative
shy	enthusiastic	punctual	honest	outgoing
punctual	polite	helpful	patient	friendly

POSITIVE	NEGATIVE

2. Complete:

- 1) Maria always arrives at work on time. She is _____.
- 2) Anna is kind and always ready to help her colleagues. She is _____.
- 3) Paul can wait without getting angry. He is _____.
- 4) Sophia sometimes says bad words to colleagues. She is _____.
- 5) Nora loves her job and is very excited about it. She is _____.
- 6) Peter never gives up, even when things are difficult. He is _____.
- 7) Tom never wants to work and often sleeps at his desk. He is _____.
- 8) Anna always does her tasks carefully and works many hours. She is _____.
- 9) David knows a lot about his job and has the right certificates. He is _____.
- 10) I'm _____. I am very good working in a team.
- 11) Lily is very good at using computers. She is _____.

1. Classify the following adjectives into “ positive” or negative.

well-paid	monotonous	permanent	easy	outdoor boring	interesting	temporary	creative	demanding
stressful	indoor	badly-paid	part-time	difficult
rewarding	full-time	dangerous

POSITIVE	NEGATIVE

2. Complete.

- 1) Waiters often work in _____ jobs, especially if they are students.
- 2) An artist’s job is _____; you can use your imagination and ideas.
- 3) Some factory jobs are _____; you do the same thing again and again.
- 4) Tour guides have _____ jobs because they meet new people and travel
- 5) A firefighter’s job is _____ because they go into burning buildings.
- 6) Working in an office is usually an _____ job, not outside.
- 7) Some students prefer _____ jobs because they don’t want to work all day.
- 8) Farming is an _____ job; you spend most of the day outside.
- 9) My job is so _____ that I can’t sleep sometimes. I should look for a more peaceful job.
- 10) Although I do extra hours, I still can’t pay my bills. My job is very _____