

Activity 1 – Comparatives of Equality (as...as)

Complete each sentence with the correct form: as + adjective + as (or the negative form).

1. The small desk is _____ the big one. (not useful)
 2. Cheap screwdrivers are _____ expensive ones. (comfortable)
 3. The light in the old lab was _____ the new LED lamp. (not bright)
 4. The new tweezers are _____ the old ones. (precise)
 5. The basic multimeter is _____ the professional one. (practical)
-

Activity 2 – Comparatives of Inferiority (not as...as / less...than)

Use not as + adjective + as or less + adjective + than.

1. Cheap pliers are _____ as Schmidt pliers. (not strong)
 2. The small workbench is _____ than the corner desk. (spacious)
 3. Basic wire strippers are _____ than screwdrivers. (expensive)
 4. A simple light is _____ than a magnifying lamp. (powerful)
 5. Low-quality cutters are _____ as the branded ones. (not durable)
-

Activity 3 – Superlatives of Inferiority (the least...)

Use the least + adjective to describe something of the lowest degree.

1. The wire strippers are _____ necessary tool in the lab. (necessary)
 2. Cheap tweezers are _____ reliable item on the table. (reliable)
 3. The old desk is _____ comfortable workspace in his lab. (comfortable)
 4. A basic lamp is _____ efficient lighting option he used. (efficient)
 5. The smallest screwdriver is _____ expensive tool in the set. (expensive)
-