

TOO, ENOUGH

GAP FILLING

[Exercise 1]

Fill in the blanks with too or enough.

1. I am not brave _____ to jump with a parachute.
2. The room is _____ dark to see anything in it.
3. The weather is _____ bad to go to the office on foot.
4. That house is not cozy _____. We are not going to buy it.
5. This distance is _____ long to cover in a day.
6. Come on! You are clever _____ to cope with this task.
7. The audience is friendly _____ to applaud heartily even if the actors don't do their best.
8. This man is _____ impolite to continue speaking to him.
9. The soup is not tasty _____. Let's add some spices to it.
10. The situation is _____ difficult to be solved at once.
11. You are careful _____ to consider this problem from different angles.
12. My father is experienced _____ to repair this TV set.
13. The dress is _____ loose for you — you need a different size.
14. The house is _____ old to live in. It needs much repairing.
15. Don't worry. I am healthy _____ to recover from the disease very fast.
16. The boy is _____ young to serve in the army.

TOO, TOO MUCH, TOO MANY, ENOUGH

[Exercise 2]

Complete the sentences with too, too much, too many, enough.

1. The boy is _____ small to understand everything.
2. You think _____ about the past. Try to focus more on the present moment.
3. Watching a good comedy is _____ for improving my mood.
4. There are _____ mistakes in your dictation. You need to rewrite it once again.
5. Bob won't clean the backyard. He is _____ lazy for that.
6. You put _____ sugar in your tea. It is not healthy.
7. Don't complain that you are short of money. I think you have _____ of it.
8. I can't solve the problem. It seems _____ tricky.
9. Nora always asks _____ questions.
10. Your word is _____ to confirm the final decision.
11. There is _____ dust on the shelves. When are you going to tidy your room?
12. William is hardworking _____ to get the job done on time.
13. She needs _____ of my attention.
14. The man is _____ old to take up parachuting.
15. There are _____ people in the swimming pool now. I will swim a bit later.