

REWRITE THE FOLLOWING TEXT USING LINKERS

Many teenagers use social media every day. They check their phones in the morning. They look at messages from their friends. They watch short videos. They scroll for a long time.

Social media helps people stay in contact. Teenagers share photos of their lives. They post about their hobbies. They follow their favorite celebrities. They learn about new trends.

Some students use social media for school. They create group chats for homework. They share information about exams. They send pictures of their notes. They help each other with difficult tasks.

Social media also has disadvantages. Some teenagers compare themselves to others. They feel unhappy about their appearance. They spend too much time online. They sleep fewer hours at night.

Parents worry about these problems. Teachers talk about online safety. Schools organize special lessons. Students learn how to protect their privacy. They learn how to behave respectfully online.

Social media is part of modern life. Teenagers cannot imagine a day without it. They need to learn how to use it in a healthy way.

REWRITE THE FOLLOWING TEXT USING LINKERS

Many teenagers use social media every day. They check their phones in the morning. They look at messages from their friends. They watch short videos. They scroll for a long time.

Social media helps people stay in contact. Teenagers share photos of their lives. They post about their hobbies. They follow their favorite celebrities. They learn about new trends.

Some students use social media for school. They create group chats for homework. They share information about exams. They send pictures of their notes. They help each other with difficult tasks.

Social media also has disadvantages. Some teenagers compare themselves to others. They feel unhappy about their appearance. They spend too much time online. They sleep fewer hours at night.

Parents worry about these problems. Teachers talk about online safety. Schools organize special lessons. Students learn how to protect their privacy. They learn how to behave respectfully online.

Social media is part of modern life. Teenagers cannot imagine a day without it. They need to learn how to use it in a healthy way.