

Rewrite the sentences using the linkers.

1) (HOWEVER)

Online classes are convenient. Some students feel isolated.

2) (AS A RESULT)

Some teenagers spend too much time online. They sleep fewer hours at night.

3) (ALTHOUGH)

Learning a foreign language is difficult. It is very rewarding.

4) (AS A RESULT)

Anna studied a lot for the exam. She passed with a very good grade.

5) (FIRST / THEN)

Mark prepared carefully for his presentation. He practiced in front of a mirror. He asked his friend for feedback.

6) (IN CONTRAST)

Many people want to live in big cities. Life in small towns is quieter.

(ON THE ONE HAND / ON THE OTHER HAND)

Some people prefer reading books. Others prefer watching movies.

7) (FOR INSTANCE)

Maria improved her English quickly. She watched movies in English. She spoke with tourists.

8) (HOWEVER)

The restaurant was very popular. The service was slow.

9) (FIRST / THEN / MOREOVER)

Paul followed several steps to learn French. He downloaded an app. He joined a language course. He practiced every day.

10) (WHILE)

Many people think technology improves communication. Others believe it creates distance between people.

11) (ON THE ONE HAND / ON THE OTHER HAND)

The city offers many job opportunities. The cost of living is very high.

12) (SO)

The weather was very cold. People stayed at home.

13) (CONSEQUENTLY)

The student did not study for the test. He failed the exam.

14) (DUE TO THIS)

The road was closed because of the accident. Drivers had to find another route.

15) (FOR INSTANCE)

There are several ways to stay healthy. People can exercise regularly, eat more vegetables, and sleep enough.
