

VOCABULARY U3: AMBULANCE EQUIPMENT

1. Write the name of the equipment that goes in the following ambulance. Use the words in the square below.

Medical seats/chairs (foldable) – Ampularios, storage racks and storage compartment below – Storage compartment – The action area – Open storage three kit compartments & warmer cabinet – Refrigerator cabinet – The cabin zone – Storage compartments below table/counter – Stretcher – The patient compartment – Oxygen cylinders – Storage racks (shelves)/ medical shelves, and vacuum mattress storage compartment – Partition wall

2. Match the translation to the correct equipment:

1. Camilla
2. Correas de inmovilización
3. Asiento del médico
4. Desfibrilador
5. Respirador
6. Cámara de goteo
7. Ampulario

- A. Suction pump
- B. Vacuum mattress
- C. Sharps container
- D. Defibrillator
- E. Intravenous fluids (IV fluids)
- F. Stretcher
- G. Medical seat

8. Jeringuillas
9. Contenedor de agujas

10. Colchón de vacío

11. Collarines

12. Fluídos intravenosos

13. Guantes esterilizados

14. Contenedor de residuos

15. Bomba de aspiración

H. Sterile gloves

I. Syringes

J. Immobilisation straps

K. Respirator / Ventilator

L. IV drip chamber

M. Medication ampoule kit (or Ampoule holder)

N. Hazardous waste container

O. Cervical collars

3. Write the name of the equipment under the following pictures. Some of the words are from the previous exercise.

Stethoscope – Oxygen masks – Medical tape – Defibrillator monitor – Bandages and role bandages – Saline solution – Ampule holder – Oxygen tanks – Transport ventilator – HEPA mask – Extrication vest – Scoup stretcher – Syringe pumps

4. Complete the sentences with the correct word from the 2 previous exercises.

- The EMT uses a _____ to listen to the patient's heart and lung sounds.
- Patients with breathing difficulties are given _____ connected to the ambulance supply.
- The _____ is used to fix bandages and secure medical devices.
- In case of cardiac arrest, the team prepares the _____ to analyse the heart rhythm.
- Bleeding wounds are covered with _____ to protect them and control bleeding.
- The nurse flushes the IV line using _____.
- Medications in glass containers are safely stored in the _____.
- The ambulance carries _____ to supply oxygen during emergencies.
- A _____ is used to assist patients who cannot breathe properly on their own.
- The EMT wears a _____ to protect against airborne particles.
- The _____ is used to remove patients safely from vehicles after accidents.
- The patient is lifted carefully using a _____ to avoid unnecessary movement.
- The patient is secured to the spine board with _____.

- The _____ is placed under the patient to immobilise the body comfortably.
- In critical care transport, _____ control the precise delivery of medication.

LISTENING: AMBULANCE EQUIPMENT

1. LISTEN AND TICK. Tick all the items mentioned in the audio.

- ☐ Oxygen tanks ☐ Blood pressure meter ☐ Defibrillator monitor ☐ HEPA mask
- ☐ Spine board ☐ Scoop stretcher ☐ Ampule holder ☐ Cervical collars ☐ Syringe pumps

2. TRUE OR FALSE. Decide if these sentences are true (T) or false (F).

- The EMT checks the oxygen tanks before the shift.
- The defibrillator monitor is only used after the emergency.
- The transport ventilator is used for patients with breathing problems.
- The scoop stretcher is used in trauma situations.
- Medications are stored in the saline solution.
- The equipment is cleaned and restocked after each service.