Tell me about yourself

- Past, present, future
- Highlight your skills
- A little personal information (not too much)

Tell me about yourself

Currently I'm an English teacher at Ricardo Mella, working alongside other members of the English department to plan and teach a wide variety of English courses. Before that I worked in the service industry for a number of years. I'm looking to transition into work in business administration here in Vigo. Outside of work I love playing chess and padel.

What is your biggest strength?

- Give an example
- concrete (I'm well organized, I'm adaptable to change, I'm good at leading teams)
- Not "I'm smart"

What is your biggest strength?

I think my biggest strength is my adaptability. I've worked many different kinds of jobs, back at home and now in Spain, and I've learned how to adapt and thrive in different environments.

What is your biggest weakness?

- Honest but not too honest
- Explain how you are trying to fix it

What is your biggest weakness?

I can struggle with time management and procrastination. I'm learning to use Google calendar to help me improve my skills.

Tell me about a time you had a conflict at work

- Be honest
- The point is to show that you are a reasonable person
- Despite the fact that X, I.....

When I was working at a bar, I had a customer accuse my coworker of stealing their wallet. Even though he was quite rude, I stayed calm and listened to his concerns respectfully before helping him find it.

Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

- Demonstrate that you want to grow in the field of your company with goals

Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

In the short term, I'm focused on learning as much as possible about X's operations. Over the next five years, I hope to grow within the company, taking on more responsibility in client relations and working myself up to management in the position
