

PO'S BACKSTORY EXERCISES ANSWER KEY

1. Answer the following questions, with a SENTENCE in PAST SIMPLE

a) What did Po ask to his father?

He asked: Where did I come from?

b) Where did Po's father find the baby panda?

He found the baby panda in a veggies basket

c) What did PO's father do when the baby panda got inside the house?

He fed him, gave him a bath and fed him again and again. He also tried to put some pants on him.

d) Father goose fed Po with carrots?

No, he didn't. He fed Po with radishes.

e) Father goose took care of Po?

Yes, he did. He raised him as his own child.

3. Write the past form of the following verbs. Put them in the right column

1. Happen

2. Come

3. Have

4. Adopt

5. Bring

6. Wash

7. Wait

8. Go

Regulars

Irregulars

2. Choose between TRUE or FALSE

a) Po knew he was adopted.

☒ T ☐ F

b) Father goose found the baby panda in a city fair.

☐ T ☒ F

c) Father goose adopted and took care of Po as his own son.

☒ T ☐ F

d) Panda bear got satisfied with the story that father goose told him.

☐ T ☒ F

4. What about you? Where did you come from? Where were you born? Write 6 sentences about your past. some information about you, when you were a baby.

When I was a baby, I slept a lot.
I was very quiet and I didn't cry or shout.
I was fat and bald.
I had a yellow plastic lion, it was my favourite toy.
My parents took me with them to the countryside inside a basket.
I drank a lot of milk from the feeding bottle.

5. Write the following text in negative form. writing the negative form of the verbs in red:

It was just another day, at the restaurant. I went out to the back. There were cabbages, turnips, radishes. There ere not radishes, just a very hungry, baby panda. There was no note. I waited for someone to come looking for you, but no one did. I brought you inside, fed you, gave you a bath, and tried to put some pants on you. And then I made a decision thet would change my life forever.

didn't go
didn't wait didn't bring didn't feed didn't give didn't try didn't make